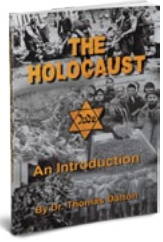
HOLOCAUST STUDIES

GENERAL OVERVIEWS

The Holocaust: An Introduction. Exploring the Evidence. By Thomas Dalton. Six million Jews, we are told, died. Although much has been written about this, much remains a mystery. For example, we would like to know: Where did the six million figure come from? Why do we have so little physical evidence from major death camps? Why has there been so much suppression and censorship on this topic? In a sense, the Holocaust is the greatest murder mystery in history which can point us to deeper truths about our contemporary society. Let's explore the evidence, and see where it leads.



#204: 128 pp. pb., 5"×8", b/w ill., bibl., index, £8/$10 (2016)

Breaking the Spell. The Holocaust, Myth & Reality. By Nicholas Kollerstrom. In 1941, British Intelligence analysts cracked the German "Enigma" code. Hence, in 1942 and 1943, radio communications between German concentration camps and Berlin were decrypted. The data reveals that the Germans were desperate to reduce the death rate in their labor camps, which was caused by catastrophic typhus epidemics. Dr. Kollerstrom, a science historian, has taken these intercepts and a wide array of mostly unchallenged corroborating evidence to show that "witness statements" supporting the human gas-chamber narrative clearly clash with the available scientific data. Kollerstrom concludes that the history of the Nazi "Holocaust" has been written by the victors with ulterior motives. With a foreword by Prof. Dr. James Fetzer. 4th edition.

Debating the Holocaust. A New Look at Both Sides. By Thomas Dalton. Mainstream historians insist that there cannot be, may not be a debate about the Holocaust. But ignoring it does not make this controversy go away. Traditional scholars admit that there was neither a budget, a plan, nor an order for the Holocaust; that the key camps have all but vanished, and so have any human remains; that material and unequivocal documentary evidence is absent; and that there are serious problems with survivor testimonies. Dalton juxtaposes the traditional Holocaust narrative with revisionist challenges and then analyzes the mainstream's responses to them. He reveals the weaknesses of both sides, while declaring revisionism the winner of the current state of the debate. 3rd edition.

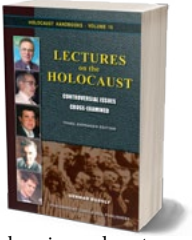
Lectures on the Holocaust. Controversial Issues Cross Examined. By Germar Rudolf. A compendium of past and present controversies about the mainstream Holocaust narrative. A comprehensive, up-to-date overview of the critical research into the Holocaust: physical traces, forensic examinations, demographies, document analysis, critique of witness testimony. Rudolf introduces the most-important arguments for his findings, and his audience reacts with supportive, skeptical and also hostile questions. Of the thousands of books on this topic, this one gives the most-comprehensive and up-to-date overview of the critical research into the Holocaust. With its dialog style, it is pleasant to read, and with its logical organization and index, it can even be used as an encyclopedic compendium.



#246: 3rd, rev. ed., 596 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £25/$30 (2017)

#444: currently 36 volumes, mostly 6"×9" pb (only #27 has letter size), instead of ~~£746.95/$1006~~ only £500/€680

The Hoax of the Twentieth Century. The Case against the Presumed Extermination of European Jewry. By Arthur R. Butz. The first writer to analyze the entire Holocaust complex in a precise scientific manner. This book exhibits the overwhelming force of arguments accumulated by the mid-1970s. It continues to be a major historical reference work, frequently cited by prominent personalities. This edition has numerous supplements with new information gathered over the last 35 years. Fourth edition.

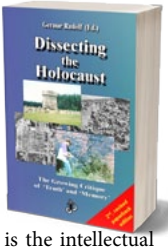
Dissecting the Holocaust. The Growing Critique of 'Truth' and 'Memory'. Edited by Germar Rudolf. This book applies state-of-the-art scientific technique and classic methods of detection to investigate the alleged murder of millions of Jews by Germans during World War II. In 22 contributions—each of some 30 pages—the 17 authors dissect generally accepted paradigms of the "Holocaust." It reads as excitingly as a crime novel: so many lies, forgeries and deceptions by politicians, historians and scientists are proven. This is the intellectual adventure of the 21st century. Be part of it!



#38:2nd, rev. ed., 620 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £19.95/$25.50 (2003)

The Dissolution of Eastern European Jewry. By Walter N. Sanning. Six Million Jews died in the Holocaust. Sanning thoroughly explored European population developments and shifts mainly caused by emigration as well as deportations and evacuations conducted by both Nazis and the Soviets, among other things. The book is based mainly on Jewish, Zionist and mainstream sources. It concludes that a sizeable share of the Jews found missing after the Second World War, which were so far counted as "Holocaust victims," had either emigrated (mainly to Israel or the U.S.) or had been deported by Stalin to Siberian labor camps. 2nd edition, foreword by A.R. Butz, epilogue by Germar Rudolf containing important updates.

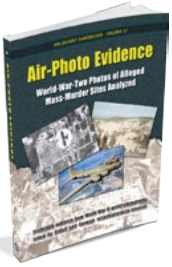
Air-Photo Evidence: World War Two Photos of Alleged Mass Murder Sites Analyzed. By John C. Ball. During World War Two both German and Allied reconnaissance aircraft took countless air photos of places of tactical and strategic interest in Europe. Some of these photos provide evidence for the investigation of the Holocaust. Air photos of locations like Auschwitz, Majdanek, Treblinka, Babi Yar etc. permit an insight into what did or did not happen there. John Ball has unearthed many pertinent photos and has thoroughly analyzed them. This book is full of air-photo reproductions and schematic drawings explaining them. According to the author, these images refute many of the atrocity claims made by witnesses in connection with events in the German sphere of influence. 3rd revised and expanded edition. Edited by Germar Rudolf; with a contribution by Carlo Mattogno.



#257: 5th ed., 178 pp. pb., 8.5"×11", b/w ill., bibl., index, £18/$20 (2018)

The Leuchter Reports: Critical Edition. By Fred Leuchter, Robert Faurisson and Germar Rudolf. Between 1988 and 1991, U.S. expert on execution technologies Fred Leuchter wrote four detailed reports addressing whether the Third Reich operated homicidal gas chambers. The first report on Auschwitz and Majdanek became world famous. Based on chemical analyses and various technical arguments, Leuchter concluded that the locations investigated "could not have then been, or now be, utilized or seriously considered to function as execution gas chambers." 4th edition.

The Giant with Feet of Clay: Raul Hilberg and His Standard Work on the "Holocaust." By Jürgen Graf. Raul Hilberg's major work The Destruction of European Jewry is an orthodox standard work on the Holocaust. But what evidence does Hilberg provide to back his thesis that there was a German plan to exterminate Jews, carried out mainly in gas chambers? Jürgen Graf applies the methods of critical analysis to Hilberg's evidence and examines the results in light of modern historiography. The results of Graf's critical analysis are devastating for Hilberg. 2nd, corrected edition.

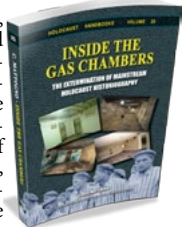
Inside the Gas Chambers: The Extermination of Mainstream Holocaust Historiography. By Carlo Mattogno. Neither increased media propaganda nor political pressure nor judicial persecution can stifle revisionism. Hence, in early 2011, the Holocaust Orthodoxy published a 400 pp. book (in German) claiming to refute "revisionist propaganda," trying again to prove "once and for all" that there were homicidal gas chambers at the camps of Dachau, Natzweiler, Sachsenhausen, Mauthausen, Ravensbrück, Neuengamme, Stutthof… you name them. Mattogno shows with his detailed analysis of this work of propaganda that mainstream Holocaust hagiography is beating around the bush rather than addressing revisionist research results. He exposes their myths, distortions and lies. 2nd edition.



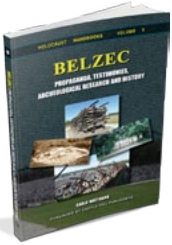
#220: 280 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., £16/$20 (2016)

BOOKS ON SPECIFIC CAMPS

Treblinka: Extermination Camp or Transit Camp? By Carlo Mattogno and Jürgen Graf. It is alleged that at Treblinka in East Poland between 700,000 and 3,000,000 persons were murdered in 1942 and 1943. The weapons used were said to have been stationary and/or mobile gas chambers, fast-acting or slow-acting poison gas, unslaked lime, superheated steam, electricity, diesel exhaust fumes etc. Holocaust historians alleged that bodies were piled as high as multi-storied buildings and burned without a trace, using little or no fuel at all. Graf and Mattogno have now analyzed the origins, logic and technical feasibility of the official version of Treblinka. On the basis of numerous documents they reveal Treblinka's true identity as a mere transit camp.

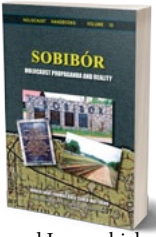
#217: 372 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £17/$22 (2016, reprint)

Belzec in Propaganda, Testimonies, Archeological Research and History. By Carlo Mattogno. Witnesses report that between 600,000 and 3 million Jews were murdered in the Belzec camp, located in Poland. Various murder weapons are claimed to have been used: diesel gas; unslaked lime in trains; high voltage; vacuum chambers; etc. The corpses were incinerated on huge pyres without leaving a trace. For those who know the stories about Treblinka this sounds familiar. Thus the author has restricted this study to the aspects which are new compared to Treblinka. In contrast to Treblinka, forensic drillings and excavations were performed at Belzec, the results of which are critically reviewed.



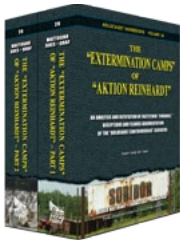
#214: 142 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £12/$15 (2016, reprint)

Sobibor: Holocaust Propaganda and Reality. By Jürgen Graf, Thomas Kues and Carlo Mattogno. Between 25,000 and 2 million Jews are said to have been killed in gas chambers in the Sobibór camp in Poland. The corpses were allegedly buried in mass graves and later incinerated on pyres. This book investigates these claims and shows that they are based on the selective use of contradictory eyewitness testimony. Archeological surveys of the camp in 2000-2001 are analyzed, with fatal results for the extermination-camp hypothesis. The book also documents the general National Socialist policy toward Jews, which never included a genocidal "final solution."



#52: 434 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £18/$25 (2010)

The "Extermination Camps" of "Aktion Reinhardt". By Jürgen Graf, Thomas Kues and Carlo Mattogno. In late 2011, several members of the exterminationist Holocaust Controversies blog published a study which claims to refute three of our authors' monographs on the camps Belzec, Sobibor and Treblinka (see previous three entries). This tome is their point-by-point response, which makes "mincemeat" out of the bloggers' attempt at refutation. It requires familiarity with the above-mentioned books and constitutes a comprehensive update and expansion of their themes. Two volumes.



#76: 712+684 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., sold as a set only; altogether £45/$60 (2013)

Chelmno: A Camp in History & Propaganda. By Carlo Mattogno. The world's premier holocaust scholar focuses his microscope on the death camp located in Poland. It was at Chelmno that huge masses of prisoners—as many as 1.3 million—were allegedly rounded up and killed. His book challenges the conventional wisdom of what went on inside Chelmno. Eyewitness statements, forensics reports, coroners' reports, excavations, crematoria, building plans, U.S. reports, German documents, evacuation efforts, mobile gas vans for homicidal purposes—all are discussed.

The Gas Vans: A Critical Investigation. (A perfect companion to the Chelmno book.) By Santiago Alvarez and Pierre Marais. It is alleged that the Nazis used mobile gas chambers to exterminate 700,000 people. Up until 2011, no thorough monograph had appeared on the topic. Santiago Alvarez has remedied the situation. Are witness statements reliable? Are documents genuine? Where are the murder weapons? Could they have operated as claimed? Where are the corpses? Alvarez has scrutinized all known wartime documents, photos and witness statements on this topic, and has examined the claims made by the mainstream.

Concentration Camp Majdanek. A Historical and Technical Study. By Carlo Mattogno and Jürgen Graf. Little research had been directed toward Concentration Camp Majdanek in central Poland, even though it is claimed that up to a million and more Jews were murdered there. The only information available is discredited Polish Communist propaganda. This glaring research gap has finally been filled. After exhaustive research of primary sources, Mattogno and Graf created a monumental study which expertly dissects and repudiates the myth of homicidal gas chambers at Majdanek. They also critically investigated the legend of mass executions of Jews in anti-tank trenches ("Operation Harvest Festival") and prove them groundless. The authors' investigations lead to unambiguous conclusions about the camp which are radically different from the official theses. Again they have produced a standard and methodical investigative work, which authentic historiography cannot ignore. Third edition.

#219: 358 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £16/$21 (2016, reprint)

Concentration Camp Stutthof and Its Function in National Socialist Jewish Policy. By Carlo Mattogno and Jürgen Graf. The Stutthof camp in Prussia has never before been scientifically investigated by traditional historians, who claim nonetheless that Stutthof served as a 'makeshift' extermination camp in 1944. Based mainly on archival resources, this study thoroughly debunks this view and shows that Stutthof was in fact a center for the organization of German forced labor toward the end of World War II. Fourth edition.

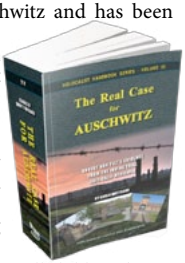
AUSCHWITZ STUDIES

The Real Case of Auschwitz: Robert van Pelt's Evidence from the Irving Trial Critically Reviewed. By Carlo Mattogno. Prof. Robert van Pelt is considered one of the best mainstream experts on Auschwitz and has been called upon several times in holocaust court cases. His work is cited by many to prove the holocaust happened as mainstream scholars insist. This book is a scholarly response to Prof. van Pelt—and Jean-Claude Pressac. It shows that their studies are heavily flawed. This is a book of prime political and scholarly importance to those looking for the truth about Auschwitz.



#151: 2nd ed., 758 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, £30/$40 (2015)

Auschwitz: Plain Facts—A Response to Jean-Claude Pressac. Edited by Germar Rudolf. In the late 1980s/early 1990s, French pharmacist Jean-Claude Pressac tried to refute revisionist findings with their own technical methods. For this he was praised by the mainstream, and they proclaimed victory over the "revisionists." In Auschwitz: Plain Facts, Pressac's works are subjected to a devastating critique by leading revisionist scholars. They show that Pressac could not refute the revisionists, because he made claims he could not prove or which contradict the facts. Many documents he quoted do not state what he claimed. But most importantly: his books neither contain references to technical or scientific literature, nor are there any technical consideration in them. With contributions by Germar Rudolf, Serge Thion, Robert Faurisson, and Carlo Mattogno. 2nd edition.

#186: 226 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., index, glossary, £14/$20 (2016)

Auschwitz: A Three-Quarter Century of Propaganda Origins, Development and Decline of the "Gas Chamber" Propaganda Lie. By Carlo Mattogno. An overview of the many rumors, myths and lies about Auschwitz spread during and right after the war, which mainstream historians today reject as untrue: murder by gas bombs, electrocution chambers, gas showers, pneumatic hammer systems, electrocution conveyor belts; oils, grease and soap made of murder victims; 4 million victims; crematoria with a capacity of up to 400 million bodies… It then explains by which ridiculous methods some claims about Auschwitz were accepted as true and turned into "history," although they are just as untrue.

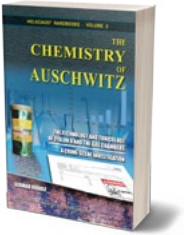
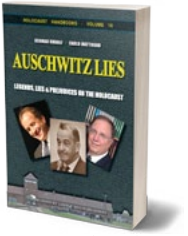
The Chemistry of Auschwitz. Technology and Toxicology of Zyklon B and the Gas Chambers – A Crime Scene Investigation. By Germar Rudolf. First, this study subjects the claimed chemical slaughterhouses of Auschwitz to a thorough forensic examination. Next, it analyzes the murder weapon, the poison gas Zyklon B, to determine how this substance operated, and what traces, if any, it might have left where it was employed. The results are convincing to the open-minded, but scandalous to the dogmatic reader. To which side do you belong?



442 pp. pb., 6"×9", bibl. index (2017); #228: black & white, £20/$25; #227: color throughout: £40/$55

Auschwitz Lies: Legends, Lies and Prejudices on the Holocaust. By Carlo Mattogno and Germar Rudolf. The fallacious research and alleged "refutation" of Revisionist scholars by French biochemist G. Wellers, Polish Prof. J. Markiewicz, chemist Dr. Richard Green, Profs. Zimmerman, M. Shermer and A. Grobman, as well as researchers Keren, McCarthy and Mazal, are exposed for what they are: blatant and easily exposed political lies created to ostracize dissident historians. In this book, facts beat propaganda once again. Third edition.



#199: 406 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., index, £19/$25 (2016)

Auschwitz: The Central Construction Office. By Carlo Mattogno. Based upon mostly unpublished German wartime documents, this study describes the history, organization, tasks and procedures of the Central Construction Office of the Waffen-SS and Auschwitz Police. Despite a huge public interest in the camp, next to nothing was really known about this office, which was responsible for the planning and construction of the Auschwitz camp complex, including the crematories which are said to have contained the "gas chambers." 2nd edition.

Auschwitz: The First Gassing—Rumor and Reality. By Carlo Mattogno. The first gassing in Auschwitz is claimed to have occurred on Sept. 3, 1941, in a basement room. The accounts reporting it are the archetypes for all later gassing accounts. This study analyzes all available sources about this alleged event. It shows that these sources contradict each other on location, date, preparations, victims etc, rendering it impossible to extract a consistent story. Original wartime documents inflict a final blow to this legend and prove without a shadow of a doubt that this legendary event never happened. 3rd edition.

Auschwitz: Crematorium I and the Alleged Homicidal Gassings. By Carlo Mattogno. The morgue of Crematorium I in Auschwitz is said to be the first homicidal gas chamber there. This study investigates all statements by witnesses and analyzes hundreds of wartime documents to accurately write a history of that building. Mattogno proves that its morgue was never a homicidal gas chamber, nor could it have worked as such. 2nd edition.

Debunking the Bunkers of Auschwitz: Black Propaganda versus History. By Carlo Mattogno. The so-called "Bunkers" at Auschwitz-Birkenau allegedly were the first homicidal gas chambers at Auschwitz dedicated for this purpose in early 1942. In this examination of a critical component of the Auschwitz extermination legend, the author has combed tens of thousands of German wartime documents – to conclude that these "Bunkers" never existed. He shows how camp rumors of these alleged gas chambers evolved into black propaganda created by resistance groups. This was then transformed into "reality" by historians uncritically embracing everything stated by alleged eyewitnesses. Aerial photography and archeological diggings bolsters the case that the "bunkers" were propaganda bunk. Second revised edition.

Auschwitz: Open-Air Incinerations. By Carlo Mattogno. Hundreds of thousands of corpses of murder victims are claimed to have been incinerated in deep ditches in the Auschwitz concentration camp. This book examines the many testimonies regarding these incinerations and establishes whether these claims were even possible. Using aerial photographs, physical evidence and wartime documents, the author shows that these claims are fiction. A must read. 2nd edition.

Special Treatment in Auschwitz: Origin and Meaning of a Term. By Carlo Mattogno. When appearing in German wartime documents, terms like "special treatment," "special action," and others have been interpreted as code words for mass murder. But that is rarely, if ever, true. This study focuses on documents about Auschwitz, showing that, while "special" had many different meanings, not a single one meant "execution." Hence the practice of deciphering an alleged "code language" by assigning homicidal meaning to harmless documents – a key component of mainstream historiography – is untenable. Second edition.

Healthcare in Auschwitz: Medical Care and Special Treatment of Registered Inmates. By Carlo Mattogno. In extension of the above study on Special Treatment in Auschwitz, this study proves the extent to which the German authorities at Auschwitz tried to provide appropriate health care for the inmates. This is frequently described as special measures to improve the inmates' health and thus ability to work in Germany's armaments industry. This, after all, was the only thing the Auschwitz authorities were really interested in due to orders from the highest levels of the German government. A second part of this book deals with the fate of registered inmates who were subject to "selections" and "special treatment" due to being sick or otherwise incapacitated. A third part looks into the the personality and acitivites of Dr. Eduard Wirths, the Auschwitz garrison physician.

The Cremation Furnaces of Auschwitz. By Carlo Mattogno & Franco Deana. An exhaustive technical study of the history and technology of cremation in general and of the cremation furnaces of Auschwitz in particular. On a sound and thoroughly documented base of technical literature, extant wartime documents and material traces, Mattogno and Deana can establish the true nature and capacity of the Auschwitz cremation furnaces. They show that these devices were cheaper versions than what was usually produced, and that their capacity to cremate corpses was lower than normal, too. Hence this study reveals that the Auschwitz cremation furnaces were not monstrous super ovens but rather inferior make-shift devices. 3 volumes.

Curated Lies: The Auschwitz Museum's Misrepresentations, Distortions and Deceptions. By Carlo Mattogno. Revisionist research results have put the Polish Auschwitz Museum under enormous pressure to answer this challenge. They've answered. This book analyzes their answer and reveals the appallingly mendacious attitude of the Auschwitz Museum authorities when presenting documents from their archives. With a contribution by Eric Hunt on the Auschwitz Museum's misrepresentations of its most valued asset, the "gas chamber" in the Main Camp.

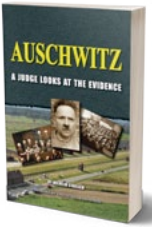
Auschwitz: A Judge Looks at the Evidence. By Wilhelm Stäglich. Stäglich, until the mid-1970s a German judge, has so far been the only legal expert to critically analyze the foundations of what we today think we know about Auschwitz. His research results, as presented in this book, leave the reader at times breathless when confronted with the incredibly scandalous way in which the Allied victors and later the German judicial authorities bent and broke the law in order to come to politically foregone conclusions. This third edition contains a foreword by the editor pointing the curious reader to more-recent research results, as well as an epilogue describing the persecution suffered by Stäglich for his peaceful dissent.



#123: 422 pp. pb., 6"×9", b/w ill., bibl., £24/$30 (2015)

WITNESS CRITIQUE

Holocaust High Priest: Elie Wiesel, Night, the Memory Cult, and the Rise of Revisionism. By Warren B. Routledge. The first unauthorized biography of Wiesel exposes both his personal deceits and the whole myth of "the six million." It shows how Zionist control has allowed Wiesel and his fellow extremists to force leaders of many nations, the U.N. and even popes to genuflect before Wiesel as symbolic acts of subordination to World Jewry, while at the same time forcing schoolchildren to submit to Holocaust brainwashing.

An Auschwitz Doctor's Eyewitness Account: The Tall Tales of Dr. Mengele's Assistant Analyzed. By Miklos Nyiszli & Carlo Mattogno. Nyiszli, a Hungarian Jew who studied medicine in Germany before the war, ended up at Auschwitz in 1944 as Dr. Mengele's assistant. After the war he wrote an account of what he claimed to have experienced. He also volunteered to testify at the Nuremberg postwar tribunal, but was rejected by the prosecution. His story was simply too wild.To this day some traditional historians take his accounts seriously, while others accept that it is a grotesque collection of lies and exaggerations. This study analyzes Nyiszli's novel and his pretrial interrogation, and it skillfully separates truth from fabulous fabrication.

Commandant of Auschwitz: Rudolf Höss, His Torture and His Forced Confessions. By Carlo Mattogno & Rudolf Höss. From 1940 to 1943, Rudolf Höss was the commandant of the infamous Auschwitz Camp. After the war, he was captured by the British. In the following 13 months until his execution, he made 85 depositions of various kinds in which he confessed his involvement in the "Holocaust." This study first reveals how the British tortured him to extract various "confessions." Next, all of Höss's depositions are analyzed by checking his claims for internal consistency and comparing them with established historical facts. The results are eye-opening.

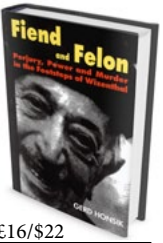
Fiend & Felon. By Gerd Honsik. Simon Wizenthal was lionized in the Establishment media as the world's leading 'Nazi hunter'. But there is another side to this unsavoury individual. As Honsik shows, perjury, power and murder follow in Wizenthal's footsteps. This is an account not only of Wizenthal's criminal activities, but of worldwide anti-German activities.



#311: 403 pp. hc., A5, ill., index, £16/$22

MAINSTREAM FAILURES

A series of studies exposing mainstream books on the Holocaust as the failures they are:

Fail: "Debunking Holocaust Denial Theories". How James and Lance Morcan Botched Their Attempt to Affirm the Historicity of the Nazi Genocide. By Carlo Mattogno. The novelists and movie-makers James and Lance Morcan have produced a book "to end [Holocaust] denial once and for all." To do this, "one by one, the various arguments Holocaust deniers use to try to discredit wartime records are carefully scrutinized and then systematically disproven." But it's a grand feint. This study proves that the Morcans do not address revisionist arguments at all. In fact, they completely ignored the vast amount of recent revisionist studies. Instead, they engaged in shadowboxing, creating some imaginary, bogus "revisionist" scarecrow – a mélange of distorted or completely invented alleged "denier" arguments – which they then tore to pieces. In addition, their knowledge even of their own side's source material is dismal, and the way they backed up their misleading or false claims is pitifully inadequate. F for FAIL.

Bungled: "Denying the Holocaust." How Deborah Lipstadt Botched Her Attempt to Demonstrate the Growing Assault on Truth and Memory. By Germar Rudolf. With her book Denying the Holocaust, Deborah Lipstadt tried to show the flawed methods and extremist motives of "Holocaust deniers." Backed up with hundreds of references to thoroughly researched studies, the present book demonstrates that Dr. Lipstadt clearly has neither understood what the principles and methods of science and scholarship are, nor has she any clue about the historical topics she is writing about. She misquotes, mistranslates, misrepresents, misinterprets, and makes a plethora of wild claims without backing them up with anything. F for FAIL. 2nd edition.

Fail: "Denying History." How Michael Shermer and Alex Grobman Botched Their Attempt to Refute Those Who Say the Holocaust Never Happened. By Carlo Mattogno. Skeptic Magazine editor Michael Shermer and Alex Grobman from the Simon Wiesenthal Center wrote a book which they claim is "a thorough and thoughtful answer to all the claims of the Holocaust deniers." In fact, however, Shermer and Grobman completely ignored the vast amount of recent scholarly revisionist studies. They primarily piled up an enormous heap of falsifications, contortions, omissions, and fallacious interpretations of the evidence. They ignored the known unreliability of their cherry-picked selection of evidence, utilized unverified and incestuous sources, and obscured the evidence that dooms their project to failure.

HOLOCAUST MISCELLANY

The First Holocaust. The Surprising Origin of the Six-Million Figure. By Don Heddesheimer. This compact but substantive study documents propaganda spread prior to, during and after the FIRST World War that claimed East European Jewry was on the brink of annihilation. The magic number of suffering and dying Jews was 6 million back then as well. The book details how these Jewish fundraising operations in America raised vast sums in the name of feeding suffering Polish and Russian Jews but actually funneled much of the money to Zionist and Communist groups, including Communist revolutionaries in Russia. 3rd edition.

Jewish Emigration from the Third Reich By Ingrid Weckert. Historical writings to date give at times the impression that Jews who wished to leave Third Reich Germany had to sneak over the borders in defiance of the German authorities, and leave all their possessions and wealth behind. The truth is that the emigration was welcomed by the German authorities, and benefitted from encouragement and assistance that increased over time. Until the outbreak of the war, emigration was not some kind of wild flight, but rather a lawfully conducted and regulated matter. Weckert's booklet elucidates the emigration process in law and policy, thereby correcting the traditionally received picture of Jewish emigration from Germany significantly. 2nd expanded edition.

Final Solution. Germany's Madagascar Resettlement Plan. By Ralph Grandinetti. Everyone "knows" the Germans had a "final solution" for their so-called "Jewish Problem." But did you know that this solution offered Jewish leaders the island of Madagascar off the coast of east Africa? Vichy French Prime Minister Pierre Laval agreed to turn the French island of Madagascar into a new Jewish homeland. This new Madagascar was to be governed by a joint German-French board with representation granted to any government cooperating. What was the Madagascar Plan and why did it fail? What world leaders supported it—and which did not?

Exactitude: Festschrift for Robert Faurisson on Occasion of his 75th Birthday By R.H. Countess, C. Lindtner, G. Rudolf (eds.). On January 25, 1929, a man was born who probably deserves the title of the most courageous intellectual of the 20th century and the beginning of the 21st century: Robert Faurisson. With bravery and steadfastness, he challenged the dark forces of historical and political fraud with his unrelenting exposure of their lies and hoaxes. This book describes and celebrates the man and his work.

Just Who Is Robert Faurisson? Selected Writings & Commentaries on "the Holocaust" By Robert Faurisson. Dr. Faurisson was professor of French literature in Paris and in Lyon, where he specialised in the "critical appraisal of texts and documents (literature, history, media)." That enabled him to look critically into claims on the "Holocaust." When he started publishing his views, he was de facto forbidden from teaching, and in subsequent years he was increasingly subject to persecution, prosecution and violence. Faurisson played an important role in the two Zündel "Holocaust trials" in Toronto, Canada (1985 and 1988). His most noteworthy contribution to them was his securing of the participation of Fred Leuchter, who wrote the famous Leuchter Report.
This brochure publishes a number of Faurisson's essays epitomising his views.

WARS & ATROCITIES

Who Started World War II

Truth for a War-Torn World. By Udo Walendy. For seven decades, mainstream historians have insisted that Germany was the main, if not the sole culprit for unleashing World War II in Europe. In the present book this myth is refuted. There is available to the public today a great number of documents on the foreign policies of the Great Powers before September 1939 as well as a wealth of literature in the form of memoirs of the persons directly involved in the decisions that led to the outbreak of World War II. Together, they made possible Walendy's present mosaic-like reconstruction of the events before the outbreak of the war in 1939. This book has been published only after an intensive study of sources, taking the greatest care to minimize speculation and inference. The present edition has been translated completely anew from the German original and has been slightly revised.

Stalin's War of Extermination: 1941-1945. Planning, Realization and Documentation. By Joachim Hoffmann. Based on the author's lifelong study of German and Russian military records, Stalin's War of Extermination not only reveals—as never before—the Red Army's grisly record of atrocities against soldiers and civilians, but establishes beyond cavil that torture, murder, and rape of the captive and the helpless was official Soviet policy, as ordered by Comrade J.V. Stalin. An indispensable book for all students of World War II as it actually happened, as well as a revisionist classic that has shaken anti-German propagandists to the marrow.

Bleeding Germany Dry. The Aftermath of World War II. By Claus Nordbruch. A depiction of the premeditated mass atrocities committed by the Allies after WWII during the ethnic cleansing of 15 million Germans from Eastern Europe; the mass rape of German women and girls all over Europe; the Allies' systematic plunder of Germany; the tortures and murders of millions of German civilians and PoWs. The book also addresses the millions of Germans who were slave workers for the Allies after the war. Based on this deluge of atrocities, the author presents Germany's grounds for claiming restitution for Germans. Bleeding Germany Dry is an accurate and hard-hitting revision of historical events that for over half a century have had a decisive influence on the policies of Berlin and Vienna. Nordbruch also insists that all Allied nations continue to wage war against Germany, albeit a war no longer waged with bombs and machine guns. Instead, it is a war of an intellectual corrosive subversion, and also conducted against German science. The heart of Europe is still suffering from the consequences of this radical policy of total destruction, which is unprecedented in human history.

The Brainwashing of the German Nation. By Udo Walendy. Walendy has been imprisoned because he refuses to accept the official historical lies of the German and Allied governments. In this short book, Walendy describes the hidden truth of the "legal" origin of today's German laws, forced on a defeated people, now stripped of their history and their identity, brainwashed by their conquerors to make them more malleable citizens in the New World Order. Now flooded by migrants, the German people is threatened with extinction facing a political system that persecutes anyone who is trying to stop this insanity. Read here how all this came about.

The Devil's Handiwork. A Victim's View of "Allied" War Crimes. By Herbert L. Brown. An amazing compilation of chapters on war crimes committed by the "good guys" against the "bad guys." Many of the events covered in this book are to this day censored or twisted in mainstream history books. Topics: death camps in the Civil War; concentration camps in the Boer War; the Dresden massacre; the Ukrainian terror famine; the myth of the 6 million; Operation Keelhaul; Allied post-war show trials in Germany; the Katyn & Vinnytsia massacres; bastardizing the Germans after WWII; Hiroshima & Nagasaki; Cuba betrayed; the Invasion of Lebanon; the policy of de-Nazification; crimes during the occupation of Germany; FDR's Great Sedition Trial; Trujillo's Assassination; the Morgenthau Plan; myths of civilian bombings; the Lend-Lease fiasco; Pearl Harbor; the Soviet genocide across Europe; and much more.

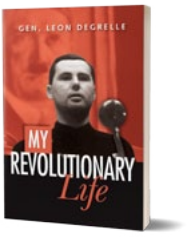
My Revolutionary Life. By Leon Degrelle. The great Belgian Waffen-SS officer recounts his experiences as a rising nationalist politician, the political situation in Europe before World War II, his battle against the bloody Bolsheviks—not only before, but also during WWII—the last days of the Third Reich, and his daring escape to Spain (with a huge price on his head), where he was given asylum by Gen. Francisco Franco.



Painstakingly reconstructed from Degrelle's private lectures, this book is Degrelle at his very best: his amazing memory for detail, his exciting style and story-telling ability, his eyewitness insights into history—this book has it all. Once you start reading, you will not be able to put it down!

Religious Attitudes of the Indo-Europeans. By Hans F.K. Günther. In this work the author advances some reflections on the religiosity of the Indo-Europeans. By comparing the structure of various languages (like Indian, Persian, Slavic, Celtic, Germanic etc.), we can reach a conclusion as to a common or primal Indo-European language, approximating to the latter part of the early Stone Age. In the same way, from a comparison of the religious forms of these peoples we can identify a particular religious attitude emanating from the Indo-European nature – a distinctive behaviour of the Indo-European races towards the divine powers. Professor Günther examines here the innate religiosity of the European peoples.

Political Essays. By Alfred Rosenberg. The National Socialist movement has been dismissed as a racist movement without any serious political philosophical foundation. But the writings of the chief ideologue of the movement, Alfred Rosenberg (1893-1946) reveal not only a clear philosophical account of what the regenerative NS movement sought to achieve, but also the ideological bases of the foreign political aims of the Reich. This book contains 22 essays by Rosenberg addressing various aspects of social, cultural, economic and political life. Selected and translated with an introduction by Alexander Jacobs.

BIOGRAPHIES

Hitler Democrat. By Leon Degrelle. Here the other side of the story is told, as only the great General Leon Degrelle of the Waffen-SS could tell it. As a much-decorated survivor of the brutal Eastern Front, he was the last surviving major figure of World War II acquainted with all of the big names of the European arena, including Adolf Hitler himself. In fact, Hitler once said that, if he were to have a son, he would want him to be like Leon Degrelle. The original typescript of this book had been temporarily lost, but using earlier drafts of some of Degrelle's writings and through a laborious process of careful reconstruction, the editors were able to literally resurrect Degrelle's lost work on Hitler and his Germany. That material appears in Hitler Democrat for the first time. It is a monumental work of history, a genuine epic.

Rudolf Hess: His Betrayal and Murder. By Abdallah Melaouhi. In May 1941, Rudolf Hess, Hitler's right-hand man, flew to England to make peace. His plane crashed, and he was made a prisoner of the Allies and kept in solitary confinement nearly the rest of his life. What truths about the war did Hess possess that were of such danger? The author worked as a male nurse caring for Rudolf Hess from 1982 until his murder in 1987 at the Allied Prison in Berlin. Minutes after the murder he was called to the prison. The scene he saw looked like a wrestling match had taken place. Mr. Hess was lying dead on the floor. Near to him stood two unknown U.S. soldiers. The prison guard appeared agitated, sweating heavily. The author asked the guard: "What have you done with him" He replied: "The pig is finished; you won't have to work a night shift any longer." During the five years in which Mr. Melaouhi daily cared for Mr. Hess, he was able to obtain an accurate impression of his physical capabilities. Mr. Melaouhi opines that it would have been impossible for Mr. Hess to have committed suicide by hanging himself, as was later claimed. It is clear that he met his death by strangulation by a third party.

Hermann Goering: The Man and His Works. By Erich Gritzbach. This biography was a bestseller in Germany and in the English speaking world when first published in 1938. Written by one of Goering's senior staff members, this book details the many astonishing services which Goering rendered the German state. Goering recreated the German air force, served as prime minister of Prussia, president of the Reichstag, helped resuscitate Lufthansa, and helped craft legislation to create forest reserves and protect animals. He was in charge of Germany's Four Year Plan to make that nation self-sufficient. Finally, he often deputized for Hitler on many state occasions and was, in effect, always the number two man in the Nazi hierarchy. This book contains 57 original photographs and the 1938 introduction by Sir Robert H.B. Lockhart. A new introduction sketches Goering's career after the book was published.

PERSECUTION OF DISSIDENTS

Hunting Germar Rudolf: Essays on a Modern -Day Witch Hunt! By Germar Rudolf. German-born revisionist activist, author and publisher Germar Rudolf describes which events made him convert from a Holocaust believer to a Holocaust skeptic, quickly rising to a leading personality within the revisionist movement. This in turn unleashed a tsunami of persecution against him: loss of his job, denied PhD exam, destruction of his family, driven into exile, slandered by the mass media, literally hunted, caught, put on a show trial where filing motions to introduce evidence is illegal under the threat of further proseuction, and finally locked up in prison for years for nothing else than his peaceful yet controversial scholarly writings. In several essays, Rudolf takes the reader on a journey through an absurd world of government and societal persecution which most of us could never even fathom actually exists.…

Resistance Is Obligatory! By Germar Rudolf. In 2005 Rudolf, a peaceful dissident and publisher of revisionist literature, was kidnapped by the U.S. government and deported to Germany. There the local lackey regime staged a show trial against him for his historical writings. Rudolf was not permitted to defend his historical opinions, as the German penal law prohibits this. Yet he defended himself anyway: 7 days long Rudolf held a speech in the courtroom, during which he proved systematically that only the revisionists are scholarly in their attitude, whereas the Holocaust orthodoxy is merely pseudo-scientific. He then explained in detail why it is everyone's obligation to resist, without violence, a government which throws peaceful dissidents into dungeons. When Rudolf tried to publish his public defence speech as a book from his prison cell, the public prosecutor initiated a new criminal investigation against him. After his probation time ended in 2011, he dared publish this speech anyway…

Heresy in 21st Century France. A Case of Insubmission. By Georges M. Theil. In 2005 the author was convicted for "Holocaust denial" in France, because he had sent this book to two prominent French wartime resistant fighters and an orthodox historian. His sentence: six months' imprisonment, five years' political ineligibility, permanent confiscation of everything the police had seized, a fine of €30,000, and damages to be paid of nearly €40,000. Historical revisionism is mostly ignored by the general public. Yet the "System" in place is anything but indifferent to the question. Could it be they have something to hide and even fear? On reading Theil's work, you realise that they have.

JUDAICA

Tell the Truth & Shame the Devil. By Gerard Menuhin. A prominent Jew from a famous family says the "Holocaust" is a wartime propaganda myth which has turned into an extortion racket. Far from bearing the sole guilt for starting WWII as alleged at Nuremberg (for which many of the surviving German leaders were hanged) Germany is mostly innocent in this respect and made numerous attempts to avoid and later to end the confrontation. During the 1930s Germany was confronted by a powerful Jewish-dominated world plutocracy out to destroy it… Yes, a prominent Jew says all this. Fountain of Fairytales. A Scholarly Romp Through the Old Testament. By Paul Angel, John Tiffany. This book tells us which stories in the Old Testament are unsustainable through historic examination, and which may have some basis in real archeology and authentic history. It also tells which tales have been borrowed from other primary cultural sources. Why did several personalities advocate removing the Old Testament from the Christian Bible? Who was lobbying for the Jewish Old Testament to be made a part of Christian theology, forever linking the two very different religions? Some of the topics covered include: Did the Egyptians suffer the 10 plagues? Did the ancient Israelite subjugation of Palestine ever really take place? Is there any evidence that a man named Moses led his people out of bondage? What evidence exists to prove the existence of a vast Jewish empire under kings named David and Solomon?

Is the banking industry the powerful sword of Zionism? Where did the Holocaust tale originate and why? Why were the Zionists so bent on gaining the Holy Land instead of more hospitable tracts of land? How has political correctness been used to attain Zionist goals? Do Jewish forces pull the strings of power here in the U.S.? What does Israel do today that has so many people enraged? What can be done to purge America of Zionist influence before it is too late? This and more is discussed in this powerful little book.

A Short History of the Balfour Declaration. By John Tiffany. Who has heard of the Balfour Declaration? Here is a case where truth is stranger than fiction. The issuance of the Balfour Declaration set the stage for American entry into World War I and thereby laid the groundwork for World War II and the many consequential global convulsions that followed. And, ultimately, of course, it's the foundation of the tension in the Middle East today that points toward further war and destruction. Here is the secret history of the Balfour Declaration, laid out in no uncertain terms and devoid of euphemism and political correctness. Those who have any serious desire to understand the sources of world conflict need this precise and candid analysis—the facts—about the behind-the-scenes machinations that brought the Balfour Declaration into being—and why.

The Work of All Ages. The Ongoing Plot to Rule the World. By Peter Christian. A brief history of the Jewish people, from the days of Abraham to the present. The Jews are a very intelligent group, hard working and well organized, but are often resented, despised and persecuted. From ancient times, they have had a vision of Jewish world supremacy, based on the belief that they are God's "chosen people." Today they look forward to the coming of the Jewish messiah, who will lead them to rule the world from Jerusalem. This book reviews some of the things the Jews have done over the centuries to advance this agenda: the conquest of Canaan; development of the Talmud and Kabbalah; conversion of the Khazars to Judaism; support of the Protestant reformation; development of Freemasonry; institution of central banking systems; the development of Communism and Zionism; control of the media; formation of the state of Israel; and other topics. The Centuries of Revolution. Democracy, Communism, Zionism. By William White. An unsettling – but consistently fascinating – exposé of the dark forces behind world subversion that have worked relentlessly on virtually every front to forcibly transform traditional white culture for the benefit of the financial and political power of one powerful minority. Tracing the origins of this agenda back to pre-Biblical times, exploring the worship of the strange gods the Israelites encountered in Egypt, White demonstrates that the underlying philosophy of revolution has been insidiously utilized to mesmerize and enslave the peoples of the West in order to achieve the ultimate dream of world domination. Democracy, Communism and Zionism are the tools. Be prepared for a journey into unexplored territory where very real demons hold sway and no sacred cows are safe.

Karl Marx on "The Jewish Question". By Karl Marx. This book is a work by Karl Marx himself, written in 1843. It was one of Marx's attempts to deal with the integration of Jews into society. Marx analyzes the liberal rights, arguing that in a "secular state" religion will no longer play a prominent role in social life, and giving as an example the pervasiveness of religion in the United States, which, unlike Prussia, had no state religion. In Marx's analysis, the removal of religious or property qualifications for citizens does not mean the abolition of religion or property, but only introduces a way of regarding individuals in abstraction from them. On this note Marx moves beyond the question of religious freedom to his real concern. Marx concludes that, while individuals can be "spiritually" and "politically" free in a secular state, they can still be bound to material constraints on freedom by economic inequality, an assumption that would later form the basis of his critiques of capitalism.

Judaism in Music. Wagner for the 21st Century. By Richard Wagner. Genius, political activist, brilliant writer—that was the 19-century German composer Richard Wagner. Wagner wrote with the same intensity that characterized his powerful music. The two Wagner essays presented in this updated and expanded edition of Judaism in Music were published when he was creating "The Ring of the Nibelung" series of operas. In 1850 Wagner penned an article entitled "Judaism in Music," which caused such a firestorm that in 1869 he published an unapologetic letter entitled "Some Explanations Concerning 'Jews in Music.'" This volume is introduced by Australian Revisionist historian Dr. Fredrick Töben, and concludes with an essay correcting the historical record about Wagner written by the late Andrew Gray. As an added bonus, we have included Mark Twain's remembrances of the time he went to hear Wagner performed at Bayreuth.

The Lost White Race. By Ira Calvin. Calvin takes the stand that, as long as we are going to set the world in order, we might just as well decide right now that there will have to be two worlds, i.e., a white world and a coloured world. He maintains that, if we do not do this, the white race will eventually be dissolved, and in the end there will be only one world: a coloured one. The author makes a strong and justifiable appeal for a setup wherein the white race, with its blue eyes and pink skin, can be assured of continued existence. (Offline orders only)

White World Awake! Stopping the Planned Extermination of Our Volk. By Jürgen Graf. Western civilization is in desperate peril. White people are in trouble. The question of the millennium is whether Europe will survive—and with it its American, Canadian, Australian and South African cousins—and, if so, how?

For too long, observes the author, white people have fought among themselves. Now, Europe faces an existential threat with tsunamis of unassimilable Africans, Middle Easterners and Asians swarming in. Russians, Britons, Frenchmen, Germans and Poles, Serbs and Croats, Romanians, Finns and Greeks, Spaniards and Hungarians are all in the same rickety boat.

The time has come for Europe to speak with one voice on military and foreign policy matters. A Eurasian Federation is proposed which will not interfere in other parts of the world except to provide humanitarian aid and ensure the safety of such places as Armenia and Georgia against any immigration threat.

Many of the solutions apply equally to the rest of the White World. "Close the borders! Stop the flood!" is key not only for Europe, but America and all other White areas of the world. Thus Graf lays out a practical 10-step program to stop the genocide of the West starting with Europe, the cradle of White Western civilization. (Offline orders only)

Why Civilizations Self-Destruct. By Elmer Pendell. This thought-provoking book might explain some of the paradoxes of modern Western societies, such as that of an increasing burden of tax being payable by a diminishing number of productive people. Those who lack initiative and seek security become state employees, and hence an ever-increasing burden on the diminishing number of productive people. They tend to vote for parties of high taxation in order to provide themselves with employment and inflation-proof pensions. The Mob votes for its bread and games. Inevitably this situation will lead to a collapse of the structure of society. As the ancient Greeks observed, democracy degenerates into tyranny.

Populism vs. Plutocracy. The Universal Struggle. By Willis Carto (ed.). A record of the history of American populism, this book expounds the populist political philosophy by offering small profiles of some of the greatest historical populist figures. It shows that populism is more than a counterfeit label for demagogic politicians to sew on their garments. Many politicians of today claim the populist label; however, as this volume shows, few among the Establishment's figures fully understand this political philosophy. Today, with communism rightly perceived as failed and discredited, populism stands as the only obstacle in the world to economic and political slavery in a Global Plantation. This is an updated version of an earlier work, Profiles in Populism (1982).

FDR: My Exploited Father-in-Law. By Curtis B. Dall. The author was FDR's son-in-law, and spent much time in the White House, where he even had an office. Thus he had an insider's view. Dall also was a Wall Street banker and knew the tricks the financial predators use to deceive the public. The book is loaded with personal anecdotes of the people Dall met, including such notables as FDR, Eleanor Roosevelt, Bernard Baruch, Henry Morgenthau Jr., Harry Dexter White, Warburgs, Astors, Rothschilds, Lehmans and more. Dall views the stock market crash of October 1929 as "the calculated shearing of the public triggered by the sudden shortage of call money in the New York money market." He views the Federal Reserve and their globalist cheerleaders as being against the interests of Americans. He says that the top bankers plan and execute the wars that ravage the world and line the pockets of the global kleptocrats. In the end he portrays FDR as man who began his career as an optimistic ladder-climber and ended up as one of the most exploited and manipulated presidents in U.S. history.

The Gunpowder Plot: 17th-Century False Flag. By John Gerard. The Gunpowder Plot of 1605 is said to have been a failed assassination plot against Protestant King James I of England by a group of English Catholics led by Robert Catesby. The official story was that the "conspirators" were going to blow up the House of Lords during the opening of England's Parliament by igniting a massive cache of gunpowder stored in the basement. At their trial in 1606, eight of the surviving conspirators were sentenced to be hanged, drawn and quartered. Almost all of them had confessed after weeks of brutal torture. The Protestant ruling elite subsequently used this to continue cracking down on Catholicism in England and foment perpetual war with England's neighbors. Was the Gunpowder Plot a "false flag," operation? How does the evidence stand up to real scrutiny?

Nathan Hale – Martyr, Spy: An Incident in the American Revolution. By Charles W. Brown. Hale is known for his willingness to give his life in the service of his country, uttering, on the gallows, words that were once taught to school children before political correctness kicked in. According to one British officer at the scene of his hanging for espionage, Hale "behaved with great composure and resolution, saying he thought it the duty of every good officer to obey any orders given him by his commander-in-chief; and desired the spectators to be at all times prepared to meet death in whatever shape it might appear." Here is the story of how Hale came to find himself at the end of a British hangman's noose and an accurate rendering of his famous "I have but one life to give" gallows speech, plus poetry and prose and more.

The Memoirs of Col. John S. Mosby. By John S. Mosby. These are the uncensored memoirs of John Singleton Mosby, the legendary Confederate cavalry leader who bedeviled the Union army for four years, almost within sight of the U.S. capitol. With only a few thousand local men under his command, Mosby's ability to strike fast and then melt away before an effective pursuit could be organized kept the Yankee forces awake and often snarled in knots. With daring feats like capturing a Yankee general out of his bed, Mosby made his name a synonym for guerrilla warfare. After the Civil War, an became U.S. Consul to Hong Kong, and then started a 16-year career with the Southern Pacific Railroad. Then he came to Washington as an assistant attorney in the Department of Justice. From his recollections of Grant and Lee to his blow-by-blow accounts of the battles at Manassas, Fairfax Court House, Gettysburg and more, here is Mosby's brutally honest account in his own words of the most devastating war in American history.

Russian Populist: The Political Thought of Vladimir Putin. By Matthew Raphael Johnson. Russian president Vladimir Putin is one of the most reviled politicians in the west. At the same time, few leaders worldwide have maintained such high levels of popularity. Putin's political and economic successes are too startling to be debated. From his appointment as vice president on new years eve 1999, Putin has assisted in the rebuilding of a shattered country in a few short years. With high rates of economic growth, military and police reform, and a concerted attack on official corruption, Putin has become a trusted populist leader, and a significant figure in global nationalism, non-alinement and multipolarity. This book attempts to synthesize the basic political views of Putin. It does not deal much with policy, but rather, it centers around the ideas that drive Putin and his reform plans in both domestic and foreign policy. Russia under Putin has engaged in a consistent policy of state nationalism that has derailed the more radical plans of "globalization" in the west.

The Third Rome: Holy Russia, Tsarism & Orthodoxy. By Matthew Raphael Johnson. Why did the Tsars insist on maintaining their own currency and not hand it over to the bankers? How did the bankers react to this? The nature of autocracy is inimical to the great oligarchic interests for it controls their reach to the levers of power. In Russia, that meant real property ownership for the peasants and a system of social insurance and labor legislation second to none in the world. All of this under a absolutist system while the sweatshops dominated republican America. Why? M. Raphael Johnson's The Third Rome: Holy Russia, Tsarism and Orthodoxy establishes the reasons why, and, in so doing, shows the true historical roots of modern Russia, under Putin, resistance to the Zionist cabal of the New World Order.

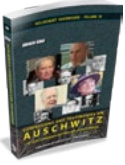
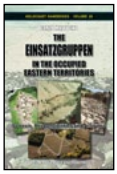
Deliveries of Coke, Wood and Zyklon B to Auschwitz: Neither Proof Nor Trace for the Holocaust. By Carlo Mattogno. Researchers from the Auschwitz Museum tried to prove the reality of mass extermination by pointing to documents about deliveries of wood and coke as well as Zyklon B to the Auschwitz Camp. If put into the actual historical and technical context, however, these documents prove the exact opposite of what these orthodox researchers claim. Ca. 250 pages, b/w ill., bibl., index (scheduled for 2019).

Auschwitz: Confessions and Testimonies. By Jürgen Graf. The traditional narrative of what transpired at the infamous Auschwitz camp during WWII rests almost exclusively on witness testimony from former inmates as well as erstwhile camp officials. This study critically scrutinizes the 40 most-important of these witness statements by checking them for internal coherence, and by comparing them with one another as well as with other evidence such as wartime documents, air photos, forensic research results, and material traces. The result is devastating for the traditional narrative. This book is dynamite underneath the main pillars of the traditional Holocaust narrative. Ca. 350 pages, b/w ill., bibl., index (scheduled for 2019).



Garrison and Headquarters Orders of the Auschwitz Camp. By C. Mattogno. A large number of all the orders ever issued by the various commanders of the infamous Auschwitz camp have been preserved. They reveal the true nature of the camp with all its daily events. There is not a trace in these orders pointing at anything sinister going on in this camp. Quite to the contrary, many orders are in clear and insurmountable contradiction to claims that prisoners were mass murdered. This is a selection of the most pertinent of these orders together with comments putting them into their proper historical context. Ca. 200 pages, b/w ill., bibl., index (Scheduled for late 2018).

The Einsatzgruppen in the Occupied Eastern Territories: Genesis, Responsibilities and Activities. By C. Mattogno. Before invading the Soviet Union, the German authorities set up special units meant to secure the area behind the German front. Orthodox historians claim that these unites called Einsatzgruppen primarily engaged in rounding up and mass-murdering Jews. This study tries to shed a critical light into this topic by reviewing all the pertinent sources as well as matieral traces. Ca. 850 pp., b/w ill., bibl., index (scheduled for late 2018).



The Making of the Auschwitz Myth: Auschwitz in British Intercepts, Polish Underground Reports and Postwar Testimonies (1941-1947). By Carlo Mattogno. Using messages sent by the Polish underground to London, SS radio messages send to and from Auschwitz that were intercepted and decrypted by the British, and a plethora of witness statements made during the war and in the immediate postwar period, the author shows how exactly the myth of mass murder in Auschwitz gas chambers was created, and how it was turned subsequently into "history" by intellectually corrupt scholars who cherry-picked claims that fit into their agenda and ignored or actively covered up literally thousands of lies of "witnesses" to make their narrative look credible. Ca. 300 pp., b/w ill., bibl., index (scheduled for mid-2018).

How you can order from us — tips and tricks

- On the next page is an order form with all the information you need. You can fill it in, cut it out and mail it to us.
- In case you do not want to cut up this catalog, simply make a photocopy and send that instead, or scan it and email it to us (shop@codoh.com).
- You can also mail us a simple letter telling us what you'd like to order.
- Or simpler still: drop us an email with your order to shop@codoh.com.
- In case you deem it too complicated to calculate the postage fee, simply leave this open, and we'll do it for you. We can send you an invoice prior to shipping anything out, so you can check it and voice any concerns before accepting or rejecting the deal.
- If you order on invoice, this usually comes with a surcharge of 5%, in particular for new customers. You can avoid this fee by paying up front. In case you are unsure about the total payable amount, simply write us what you'd like to order by letter or mail, and we'll send you an invoice for you to accept and pay before we ship anything.
- Please visit our online shop at www.shop.codoh.com, where almost all books have alternative purchase options, that is: other internet shops where you can buy the books as well. Some of them may give discounts, some may have better shipping conditions, and you may already be a customer with some of them. Many of our books can even be obtained from any book store around the corner. Just ask their sales assistant to get them for you. We are interested in you comparing prices and conditions so that you get the best deal possible. And don't be shy about it. As a publishing company, we do not have a full-fledged customer service department, so it might actually be a good idea for you to get the books from another outlet focusing on selling books rather than publishing them, which is our focus.
- For security reasons we can accept credit card payments only through our online shop. Your data is sent with high encryption directly from your browser to our bank's processing software without any person ever seeing them. Hence our online credit card option is one of the safest in the world. That also means that we cannot accept credit card data in any other form (by letter, email, phone etc.).
- We are constantly subjected to an enormous pressure of societal and political persecution. The conditions under which we have to operate may change swiftly and unexpectedly. For the most up-to-date version of our offers as well as our terms and conditions, please visit our website at www.shop.codoh.com.
- Some of our books are banned in certain countries that have strict censorship laws (such as France, Germany, Austria, and others). However, ordering and owning single copies of banned books is not a crime. It is only the seller and distributor who can get into conflict with the law. So the risk is ours. If, however, you plan on ordering several copies of a book that is banned in your country, this may be construed by the authorities as an intent to distribute, which can cause trouble. In that case we recommend that you do this without creating any evidence: don't order using any electronic media (email/fax/phone) but rather by writing us a letter (handwritten; don't keep copies); pay in advance without giving an indication what the payment is for; insist that we ship your merchandise without including an invoice (we offer that option on our printed and online order forms, if you pay up front). In case something goes wrong, don't say anything to the police without the presence of a lawyer (and talk to him only in strict privacy). Because it is true: everything you say can and will be used against you.
